Reason for Allowance

While Turney discloses a computational unit that is adaptable to implement the discrete wavelet transform and the discrete wavelet packet when the computational unit is implementing the discrete wavelet transform it is structured as illustrated in Figs. 1A and 1B and not structured in accordance with Figs. 4A and 6 which illustrate the structuring when implementing the discrete wavelet packet. Since the discrete wavelet transform and the discrete wavelet packet are distinct operations Fig. 6 cannot be relied upon to illustrate a discrete wavelet transform.
